

1 inflated appraisals, the LTV ratios listed in the Prospectus Supplements were 2 artificially low, making it appear that the loans underlying the trusts had greater 3 collateral and thus were less risky than they actually were.

4 189. The Offering Documents also stated that exceptions to underwriting 5 standards could be granted if the borrower's loan application reflected 6 "compensating factors" including "loan-to-value ratio." As detailed above, 7 however, the LTV ratios were deflated and inaccurate; therefore the use of this 8 metric as a "compensating factor" further violated the stated underwriting
9 standards. These statements in the Offering Documents related to Countrywide's 10 underwriting standards contained material misstatements and omissions because,
11 as described herein, Countrywide: (1) systematically disregarded its stated 12 underwriting standards and regularly made exceptions to its underwriting
13 guidelines in the absence of sufficient compensating factors. Despite assurances 14 that certain loans were limited to borrowers with excellent credit histories,
15 Countrywide routinely extended these loans to borrowers with weak credit 16 histories; and (2) largely disregarded appraisal standards and did not prepare 17 appraisals in conformity with Fannie Mae or Freddie Mac appraisal standards.

18 IX. CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

20 190. Plaintiffs bring this action as a class action pursuant to Federal Rules
21 of Civil Procedure Rule 23(a) and (b)(3), individually, and on behalf of a class
22 consisting of all persons or entities who purchased the Certificates identified herein 23 issued pursuant and traceable to the Offering Documents defined above (the 24 "Class") and were damaged thereby. See ¶1.

Deleted: or otherwise acquired beneficial interests in

Deleted: /or

25 191. This action is properly maintainable as a class action for the following 26 reasons:

27 192. The Class is so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable.
28 While the exact number of Class members is unknown to Plaintiffs at this time and

Deleted: SECOND

1 can only be ascertained through discovery, Plaintiffs believe that there are 2 thousands of members of the proposed Class, who may be identified from records
3 maintained by the Issuer Defendants and/or may be notified of this action using the 4 form of notice customarily used in securities class actions.

5 193. Plaintiffs are committed to prosecuting this action and have retained 6 competent counsel experienced in litigation of this nature. Plaintiffs' claims are 7 typical of the claims of the other members of the Class and Plaintiffs have the same
8 interests as the other members of the Class. The tranches for each Certificate 9 Offering were issued pursuant to a single Prospectus Supplement issued by 10 Defendants pursuant to a common Shelf Registration Statement. The individual 11 tranches which made up the Offerings were interconnected by virtue of the credit
12 enhancement provisions specified in each of the Prospectus Supplements.
13 Plaintiffs have standing to bring their claims on behalf of all purchasers of each
14 class of Certificates purchased because the Class of purchasers of the Countrywide
15 Certificates suffered damages from the impairment of the entire mortgage pools 16 and the value of the tranches in each series of Certificates depended on the 17 performance of the same pools of mortgages. As such, the impairment of the 18 collateral underlying a particular Certificate Offering affected all investors in any 19 single tranche in that Offering, in addition to investors of all tranches in any 20 particular Offering. Accordingly, Plaintiffs are adequate representatives of the 21 Class and will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the Class.

22 194. The prosecution of separate actions by individual members of the 23 Class would create the risk of inconsistent or varying adjudications with respect to 24 individual members of the Class, which would establish incompatible standards of 25 conduct for Defendants, or adjudications with respect to individual members of the 26 Class which would, as a practical matter, be dispositive of the interests of the other 27 members not parties to the adjudications or substantially impair or impede their 28 ability to protect their interests.

1 195. A class action is superior to all other methods for a fair and efficient
2 adjudication of this controversy. There will be no difficulty in the management of 3 this action as a class action. Furthermore, the expense and burden of individual 4 litigation make it impossible for members of the Class to individually redress the 5 wrongs done to them.

6 196. There are questions of law and fact which are common to the Class
7 and which predominate over questions affecting any individual Class member.
8 The common questions include, inter alia, the following:

- 9 (a) whether Defendants violated the Securities Act;
10 (b) whether statements made by Defendants to the investing public in the 11 Registration Statements, Prospectuses and Prospectus Supplements both omitted 12 and misrepresented material facts about the underlying mortgages; and 13 (c) the extent and proper measure of the damages sustained by the 14 members of the Class.

15 X. STANDING

17 197. Plaintiffs have constitutional standing to advance the claims alleged 18 herein. As set forth herein at ¶¶58-78, as well as in Plaintiffs' certifications (see 19 ¶¶29-32), Plaintiffs purchased the Countrywide Certificates and are alleged to have 20 been damaged by Defendants, and can assert a claim directly against each
21 Defendant. Accordingly, Plaintiffs have alleged concrete and particularized 22 invasions of legally protected interests for all of the claims alleged under the 23 Securities Act.
